

Shaw Spotlight Volunteer Application

Welcome to Shaw Spotlight! Our Volunteer program allows members of our community to participate in local broadcast productions, whether you have some TV experience or none at all. We offer many learning opportunities from studio environments to on location shoots and larger events involving mobile broadcast trucks. Workshops and hands on training is available for an array of roles including camera work, on camera hosting, directing, graphics creation, editing and more.

Program Outline

Being a Shaw Spotlight Volunteer means you can participate in training workshops and television productions. We will match your abilities with the opportunities available. Participation and continued involvement is at the discretion of local Shaw Spotlight staff, show producer(s) and/or crewing coordinators. Each Shaw Spotlight Volunteer Program may vary by location and have differing volumes of training and programming.

Our Commitment

Whether you're pursuing a career in television or looking for a challenging hobby, we aim to provide a platform for local voices and a flexible and fun environment for volunteers to develop broadcasting skills.

Background Check

A background check may be required for any Shaw Spotlight Volunteer applicant.
